Extract of information from Murial Parmby (or Parmley), 128 Albany Avenue, Toronto, 26 March, 1933.

I am very glad if the information I sent you regarding the history of Sandhill Church was of any use to you.

You ask about Sandy Hill, Hewitt's Church was never called Sandy Hill. The cemetery which lies about a mile and a quarter northeast of the village was in the olden days known as Sandy Hill Cemetery. Later a church was built adjoining the burying ground, by the Primitive Methodists. This church was called Providence and the cemetery took the same name.

This is a beautifully kept cemetery of something over half an acre, and is a pleasure to visit. The stones are well placed, and well cared for, and many of them must have been expensive. It was noticeable that the greater number of these stones are made of red granite. Many flowers were in evidence, and it is an example which a great many cemeteries might follow.

Mr. Finch donated the land for the cemetery and church. The church was built in 1860 but the graveyard is one of the oldest in Albion being the first incorporated in the township.

The earliest burial we have record of is 1825.

Thomas Blakney died 1825 aged 78.

It is remarkable for the number of people who lived to a ripe old age. 70, 78, 82, are really numerous while 90 or 92 is by no means uncommon. The pioneers themselves were long lived but in this as in so many others is the mute testimony that the rough country and hardships were fatal to children. It is all to often that one sees memorials like the following.

BEATTY

Ann Jane daughter of Henry & Elizabeth Shore and wife of Robert Beatty who died June 2, 1880, aged 27 years.

Also in under Beatty

Also the four infant children of R. and A. S. Beatty

Henry George R., died 1874, aged 14 days.

James Harold F., died 1876, aged 11 hours.

Elizabeth E. B., died 1878, aged 1 day.

R. Henry R. O., died 1880, aged 4 months 27 days.

One of the monuments had an inscription that does not err on the side of modesty.

re: Providence Cemetery

Dear Mrs. Dean:

re PEEL HISTORY

So many thanks for your most helpful and interesting letter.

The clipping from the Globe is great, and is returned herewith.

Do you know how Providence Cemetery got its name? no.

I did not receive the clipping from the Globe that I sent you. If was not inclosed in the letter you might have inclosed it if some- how did not get in by mistake.

How did Newtown-Hewitt get the name "Newtown"? "Newtown" was the name of the place where the Hewitts lived in Ireland.

When was Providence Cemetery first used?

I have found out that the cemetery was first used one hundred years ago. and the third person buried there was Wm Elliot who lived near the Provincial cemetery. I think I can find out who the first one also was. and I will let you know.

And by whom?

Who owned the land, or who paid for it?

The land was owned by Wm Finch. He donated the land that the church was built on. and was built in 1864

(cont'd)

How did Sandhill get its name?

Why "Sandhill"? On account of the sandy soil around Providence Cemetery, and many hills.

P.O. Circular

And when? I do not know just when it got the name, no person seems to know if was so very long ago.

I have written the Postmaster General to try and find out if Newtown-Hewitt ever was a post office, and who was first postmaster and when. I don't think Newtown-Hewitt ever was a post office

Ditto the date when Sandhill post office was opened and who the first postmaster was.

Have also written W. L. Judge, Rev. Mrs. John Neil, Matthew Stuart, Alexander McKee, James Clark, William Dixon.

You do not, however, give me the exact address for the Bowles, or Lesters, or Mahars, or Joseph Dean. Please do.

W. D. Bowles Brampton
He may also be able to tell you about the Lesters, as his mother was a Lester.
The Mahars are all away from there parts.
In connection with ~~the~~ Joseph Dean.
We are living on the old Homestead. & I have a copy of the Dean Re-union. Five years ago celebrating the one hundred anniversary. could send a copy if you would like it.

Are there any relatives or descendants of Mr. Piper or Mr. Jewet, school teachers, still living?

Mr Jewet was Principal of a school in Toronto and only died about three years ago. His family still live in the city. If I can locate them will send their address.

-3- Mrs. H. Dean.

Can you tell me on what lot number and con. number this old school was they taught sixty-five years ago?

lot. 23 ..... con. 22 .....

Are there any of Miss Edith Armstrong's people living to whom I might write?

Miss Edith Armstrong is still living and teaching at Orillia. school you will likely get in touch with her there.

On what lot and con. number do the following live?

William Morrison 24 lot. 24 .con... 6 ..... Chinguacousy

James Stuart - - - " ... 6 ... " ..... 6 ..... Chinguacousy albion

History of Providence Church

Providence Primitive Methodist Church was built in 1864 on Lot 13 2nd Line Albion township. The people of that denomination formerly worshipping at Wm Sayers across the road from where the church now stands and later at the home of Isaac Thompson on lot 11 of the same line.

The property on which the church was built was donated by Mr James Brooks on condition that it be open to all other denominations for funeral occasions as it was adjoining the cemetery.

[illegible] owned the church for which purpose it still serves.

Petersfield

The remaining land (after the church was built) was laid out in Graveyard plots and sold for those purposes, it being called the New Graveyard. The first minister was the Rev James Smith who resided in the village of Bolton, Providence the Bolton circuit at that time. (I have no recollection of any of the church officials other than Mr Isaac Thompson who carried a great part of the responsibility in regard to the building of the Church.

In 1892 the church was closed except to funeral services, the last pastor being the Rev Dr Harper. A few years later the cemetry was made a public one and the committee thereof bought the church for which purpose it still serves.

Petition

This short history is written and sent you by Mrs Daniel Cunnington Caledon East who was formerly Ellen Jane Elliott and was born on the old Elliott farm across the road from the church and who, for over twenty years was closely connected therewith.
